Who We Are

Jaasmat Group of Companies is a global business group built on more than two decades of experience in international trading, commodities, sourcing, and distribution. Our foundation dates back to 2002, evolving from established trading businesses into an international group of companies.

RP Brothers SDN BHD

2002 - 2023

Our journey began with RP Brothers, established in Malaysia in 2002, with its initial focus on trading sugar and Palm Kernel Cake (PKC).

Agape International

2004 - 2016

Agape International was established in Malaysia, further expanding our trading activities and strengthening our experience in international commodity markets.

The Jaasmat Era

In 2016 Agape International and in 2023 RP Brothers was retired, marking the beginning of a new chapter. Jaasmat was established with a broader global vision to build an international group of companies across multiple markets and business sectors.

Today

Today, Jaasmat Group of Companies builds on more than two decades of international trading experience through RP Brothers SDN BHD and Agape International. Evolving into a global business group, Jaasmat operates across commodity trading, import & export, agricultural and food products, metals, energy, sourcing, and international distribution.

With an expanding international network, we focus on global trade, strategic partnerships, supply chain development, and market expansion, combining our established experience with a modern vision for sustainable global growth.

Chairman Message

It gives me great pleasure to introduce JAASMAT Group of Companies, a diversified international trading group built on the core principle of "Earning Trust Through Business." Since our inception, we have remained committed to conducting trade with integrity, transparency, and long-term vision across global markets.

As Chairman, I am proud of the trust our partners have placed in us and confident in our ability to expand responsibly, adapt to market dynamics, and uphold the values that define our group. We look forward to building enduring partnerships and achieving shared success in the years ahead.
